Summary

Versatile artist with a strong passion for visual storytelling and film, recognized for creating storyboards and a keen eye for intricate details. Solid academic background in Fine Arts and experience in Administrative Management, cinematography, and digital design. Proficient in a variety of essential software for digital art creation including the Adobe Creative Suite, Toon Boom Products, and Figma. This, coupled with my never-ending drive for success, allows me to create compelling visual narratives and stories, a skillset I am eager to bring anywhere I work.
